

THE STARDUST[®]

MARCH 2005 | DESERT STARS SECTION | ARIZONA

Annual Defensive Driving Clinic, a Great Success

The 3rd Annual Desert Stars' Defensive Driving Clinic and Autocross brought out members and their families despite overcast skies and the threat of rain. Thirty participants benefited from the instructions of Frank & MaryAlice Cozza and Chuck Landenberger during the defensive driving portion of the event. After lunch, the course was reconfigured for autocross and the fun really started. They say, "A picture is worth a thousand words," so here are some. You'll also find many more on the section website at <http://www.desertstars.org>.

Bud Cloninger's daughter, Jamie Lucken, negotiates the slalom.

Rick Stacio digs in to clear the pylon...

Instructor Chuck Landenberger takes a pass at the course.